Spoken English

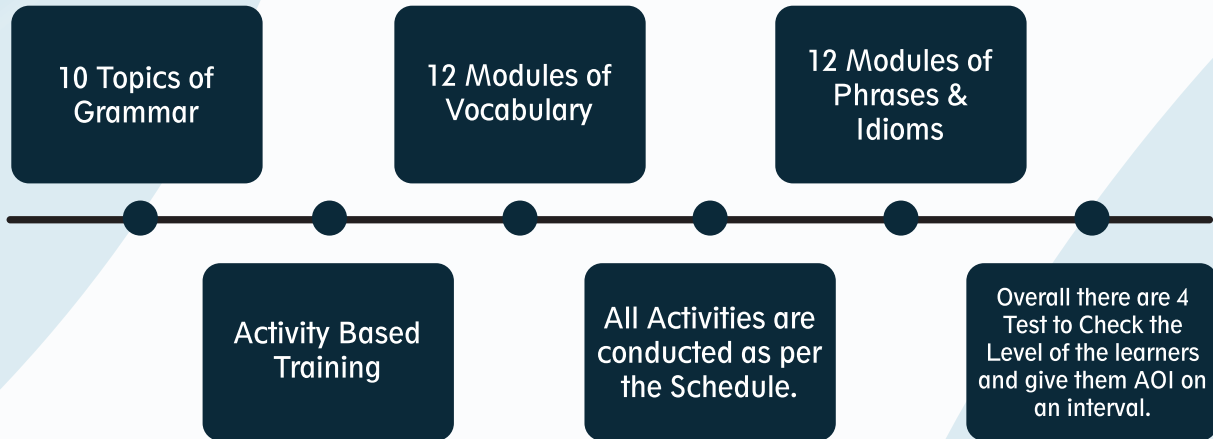

Basic English Course

In this course, Candidates will learn basic English. What they can expect, after completing this course is that candidates will be able to speak simple English, understand and frame basic sentences and dialogues. Greeting etiquette and verb tense will be polished. In this part of the course, we will also focus on vocabulary used in day to day life.

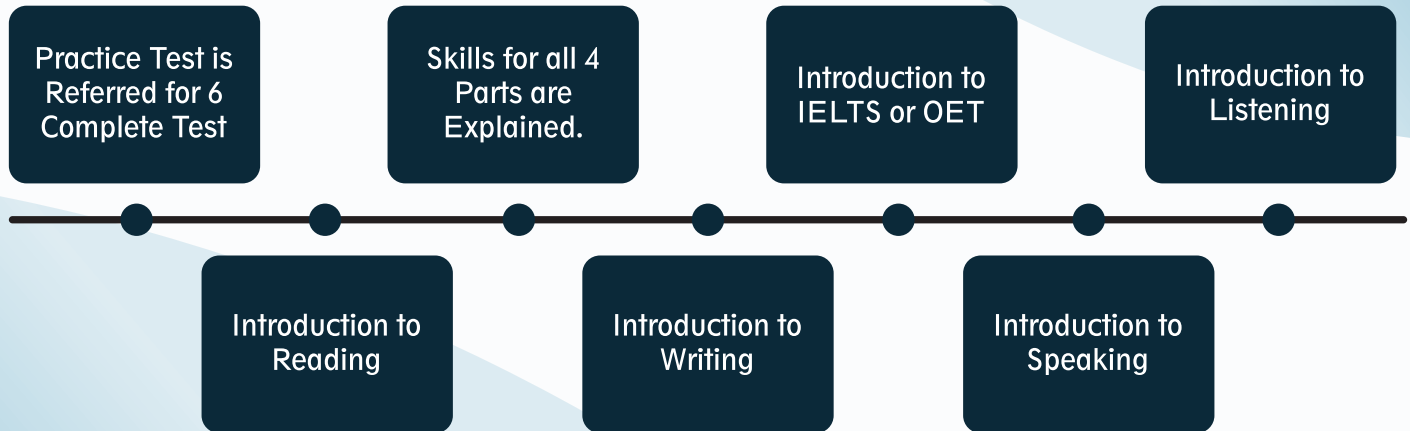

Advance English Course

Advanced courses will help to improve candidates fluency in speaking. To become a fluent communicator, candidates need to have specific communication skills. In this course, we help the candidate to quickly master advanced vocabulary to have those spontaneous rapid conversations, whether, in the workplace or daily life, this course allows you to speak fluent English without fear.

IELTS & OET

Internationally recognized exams require training to achieve the desired score. With the help of useful techniques and methods, they can now get the desired band score. They will receive comprehensive instruction in speaking, reading, writing, and listening. By helping Candidates get the highest score, we train them not only for exams but also to cultivate their confidence in speaking.

Placement

Placements, also known as recruitment, aim to facilitate the employment of students by connecting them with potential employers. This process helps students secure job offers before or shortly after their academics.

Placements and training are essential in ensuring that learners are well-prepared and connected to job opportunities as they graduate from educational institutions. These initiatives serve the dual purpose of benefiting students and employers, as they bridge the gap between academia and the professional world.

Our dedicated Team have an extensive reach in the campus and corporate sector which enables us to assist in the recruitment of Junior-level or Senior level Placements according to your convenience.

Placement

A success story of placing nurses in the UK typically involves a well-organized recruitment and placement process that benefits both the nurses seeking career opportunities and the healthcare sector in the UK. The success story of placing nurses in the UK is a testament to the impact of a well-executed recruitment and placement process.

With the collaboration of dedicated recruitment agencies, nursing colleges abroad, and healthcare institutions in the UK, the country can address its nursing shortages while providing nurses from around the world with exciting career opportunities in the UK's healthcare system.
